

Tatiara District Council – Social Media Terms of Use

1. Using Tatiara District Council Online Services

We provide our online services including social media pages on the following terms.

By continuing to access our online services, you agree to be bound by the terms outlined below and any additional terms outlined within the specific service you access. Please check this page regularly so you are aware of any updates to the terms. If you do not agree with any of the terms, as updated or amended, please do not use the services.

2. Contributing Content

You are responsible for all content you contribute to our online services, including text, photos, videos, audio and links.

You confirm you own or have the right to use any copyright material included in your content (including music, photos, quotes and excerpts of audio or video), that you have permission of anyone appearing or performing in your content and that you are not infringing any person's rights by submitting the content to our online services. You also confirm you have, where appropriate, sought the consent of the parent or guardian of any person under the age of 18 who is featured in your content.

3. Social Media House Rules

We encourage rigorous debate and the sharing of diverse opinions, but we expect our community members to treat each other with respect and courtesy.

You understand and agree that we have ultimate editorial control over all our online services. We may edit, remove or exercise our discretion not to accept or publish your contribution for legal, editorial or operational reasons including if we consider it to be:

1. defamatory, or otherwise unlawful or that it violates laws regarding harassment, discrimination, racial vilification, privacy or contempt. We reserve the right to close comments on posts that may elicit harmful, defamatory or otherwise unlawful user contributions;
2. intentionally false or misleading;
3. an infringement of intellectual property rights including copyright;
4. abusive, offensive or obscene;
5. inappropriate, off topic, repetitive or vexatious, including contributions that have already been widely canvassed in the forum;
6. compromising the privacy of any person or containing inappropriate personal information;
7. seeking to endorse commercial products or services;
8. seeking to directly solicit donations;
9. deliberate provocation of other community members; or
10. impersonating someone else and/or posting on behalf of a suspended member.

We may close comments on social media posts if a moderator resource is not or no longer available.

If you breach these House Rules, we may block your account or contributions.

If you have concerns about inappropriate content on our online services please message us.

4. Disclaimers

We do not endorse the views or material contained in any contributions to our online services and social media pages.
